

The Cat Shack

Whilst every possible care and attention is given to cats boarding with us, we accept no responsibility for any accident, injury, illness, death, loss or damage for any reason or any nature occurring during or subsequent to the cat(s) stay in the cattery. We are entitled, at our discretion and at the expense of the owner of the animal, to engage veterinary services or other services for the maintenance and wellbeing of the owner's cat(s). Should any cat(s) be left in our cattery beyond the agreed "Date Out" without the owner notifying us in writing, we are entitled to assume that such animal is abandoned and we are entitled to re-home the animal two weeks after the said "Date Out" and to recover any expenses incurred from the owner. The cat(s) referred to on the schedule below are hereby entrusted to The Cat Shack Cattery subject to the terms and conditions set out above.
